HOW TO APPLY FOR A PASS?

The Ettlingen Child and Family Pass and the Pass Plus are issued upon application. The applications are available at the Ordnungs- und Sozialamt, at the local administrations or on the homepage of the city of Ettlingen. From the age of compulsory schooling, a photo in passport size is required. From the age of 16, proof of school attendance is required.

The Ettlingen Children's and Family Pass and the Pass Plus are only valid for one calendar year and will be extended for another calendar year upon application if the proofs and requirements are fulfilled.

The pass can also be applied for by the young people themselves from the age of 14.

The list of cooperation partners is issued with the passport or can be found at www.ettlingen.de/kifapass

PLEASE NOTE

- Young people who are in vocational training, university studies or a voluntary social year (FSJ) no longer meet the requirements for the Child and Family Pass.

- All children and young people must be registered with their main residence in Ettlingen.

- The pass is issued individually for each child and is non-transferable. Lost or misplaced value passes cannot be replaced.
